

THE MERRICKVILLE DAILY HERALD

VOLUME 1, NUMBER 1

LATE LINE-----April 14, 1987.

The Merrickville Daily Herald is looking for people to help write, edit, and produce the paper: columnists, and others with writing ability.

I noticed that the crew was out cleaning the streets this morning, and doing a good job as usual. Does anybody have any ideas about our PIGEON DROPPING PROBLEMS?

The Chamber of Commerce has elected their executives for another year: Ralph Bryant, President, Joy Smith, vice President, Beverly Bryant, Secretary, Kemp McMeekin Treasurer. The three directors are not available at press time.

No good gossip from Weedmarks today; the usual gang had gathered though-----Betts's fingers are doing well.

M.H. will be published daily
